Coordinator's Update

Jim Sparks stated there was nothing new since the December budget workshop regarding the budget. He explained the EMA staff would be meeting to discuss and review the progress on goals for the current year. The information will be typed up and placed on the Emergency Management Commission Site for the mayors to access and offer any suggestions and/or areas of focus. Members were encouraged to call the office if they need assistance accessing the site.

Sparks offered the FEMA ICS 402 Incident Command System Overview course could be condensed to an hour and provided to any city interested in having it presented to their elected officials.
